Ben Dowdle

Ben founded Unmask Palm Oil with the aim of changing Australian and New Zealand food labelling laws. He has since become an expert speaker on this issue, regularly travelling around New Zealand and Australia to lead discussions on sustainable practices.

Ben is a former ambassador for UNICEF New Zealand, has been on the Auckland Youth Advisory Panel and was the sole youth representative to the Auckland Social Policy Forum. Ben was also semi-finalist for the 2015 Young New Zealander of the Year award.

“Ben gives up an enormous amount of time and money to make New Zealand and the world a better place.”
