

Leadership Award

Florence Reynolds

Florence founded the youth organization “Plastic Diet”, dedicated to addressing the issue of plastic pollution in New Zealand. The initiative also provides young people with opportunities to build volunteering and leadership skills.

Florence has participated in the Live the Dream youth social enterprise challenge and has received a University of Auckland “Blue” Leadership award.

“Florence's work has had a positive impact on the lives of hundreds of young people and the natural environment.”

