

Change Maker Award

Josiah Tualamali'i

Josiah has made a positive contribution to his community by promoting youth participation and advocacy, diversity, and the voice of Pacific Youth.

Josiah is also the Chairperson of the Pacific Youth Leadership and Transformation Council (PYLAT). He works hard to enhance the wellbeing of Pacific Youth in all aspects and ensure their voices are being heard in decision-making.

He is also the Pasifika Youth Guide for Youth Voice Canterbury and recently joined the Ministry of Youth Development's Youth Advisory Group.

“Josiah's impact on the Pacific community, especially youth, is huge. Because he is so incredibly passionate and driven Josiah has the ability to motivate and engage others to also take action to address identified needs.”
