

Anzac Youth Award

Lucy Xie

Lucy has been instrumental in establishing the MEMRIBOX Project. This project aims to capture on video the war time stories of our remaining World War II veterans. She has involved youth volunteers who had little understanding of subsequent conflicts let alone World Wars I and II.

“Thanks to the commitment and tireless effort by Lucy to this initiative ... many of the veterans who were interviewed told their stories for the first time.”

