

Working for Youth Award

Rebecca Wan

Rebecca has dedicated her time to providing opportunities for young people. She recently founded the New Zealand Secondary Schools' Art Competition and has helped create an international student buddy and mentoring programme through her school. Rebecca is also a volunteer for Trade Aid and Sistema Aotearoa, highlighting her passion for fair trade, human rights and helping underprivileged young people get ahead by learning music.

“Rebecca is genuinely passionate and enthusiastic about young people and their potential to achieve greatness and make a significant difference.”

